

The Salvation Army – Metropolitan Division
Leadership Scholarship Program
 2017-2018

Program Summary:

This program is designed to provide educational funds for Salvation Army soldiers of the Metropolitan Division. Scholarships are available for studies of all undergraduate work, and master's level graduate work. Scholarships will be awarded by the Metropolitan Scholarship Committee by September 2017.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE BY JULY 7, 2017!
 APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AFTER THIS DATE.

Funding:

Funds for the Metropolitan College Scholarship program will come from earnings of the Stubblefield Endowment. Scholarships will not be paid from the principle; therefore the number of grants given will depend upon the earnings available each year.

Scholarships Available:

Individuals may apply for scholarships in subsequent years, but awards are not guaranteed. No scholarships are made retroactive for past schooling expenses. Funds are limited, and priority will be given to those earning their first degree. Individuals may receive scholarship funding of up to $10,000 for college. No scholarships will be granted in excess of $10,000 cumulative.

Application Procedures:

- 1) Applications are submitted to the Corps Officers for endorsement & Corps Councils approval.
- 2) Applications are submitted to the Divisional Youth Secretary for endorsement & submission to the Metropolitan Scholarship Committee. Applications will not be accepted after July 7, 2017.
- 3) The Metropolitan Scholarship Committee reviews all applications & recommends the awards.
- 4) The Divisional Finance Board approves all scholarship applications & authorizes funding.
- 5) Scholarship funds are paid to each recipient in September 2017.
